Introduction to Anna Abhishekam

Abhishekam is the process of bathing the deity. "Annam" means rice and Anna Abhishekam denotes bathing the deity with cooked rice. This divine ritual is performed on the Full Moon day in the Tamil month of Aippasi. Although there is a variety of Abhishekams performed in India, this particular ceremony is performed on Lord Shiva in the form of Shiva Lingam, in all Shiva temples. Performing this ritual once a year can help you get rid of all the problems in your life. This ceremony is also known as Shiva Abhishekam or Anna Abhishekam and is conducted in Shiva temples throughout South India, particularly in Tamil Nadu.

Devotees are invited to take part in the Annabishekam to receive the blessings from Lord Sivan

Fee for Participant - $ 21.00
